

Private equity in a nutshell

Training program – Module 1

Date

January 18, 2023
09:00-13:00

Location

Online

Presenter

Cyril Demaria
Consultant, SECA

Target audience

Professionals starting in the asset class, operating in the front, middle or back office of investment structures (fund manager, holding), advisors and experts working with the private equity profession, private bankers, willing to acquire a ground knowledge on the sector, investors operating on the account of pension funds, insurance and reinsurance groups, family offices, foundations and institutional investors.

Pre-requisite knowledge

None.

Language

English

Training program

Private equity in a nutshell

Targets

- Understand the different segments of the private equity sector
- Master the technical vocabulary of the profession
- Understand the instruments (funds, fund management firms) and actors (fund investors and managers)
- Know the essential steps of an investment process and the monitoring
- Identify the key points of the sector

The role of private equity in the economy

- Private equity definitions: seed capital, venture capital, growth capital, leveraged buy-out, turnaround/rescue capital, mezzanine debt, fund of funds...
- The actors of private equity: fund investors, fund managers, advisors, entrepreneurs
- The role of institutional investors and other investors
- Key figures: activity, performance and economic and social impact
- The references of the sector: communication and performance

Intervention channels and target companies

- Swiss and foreign investment vehicles
- Target companies: characteristics
- Expected performances and instruments to measure performance
- The investor-entrepreneur relationship and value creation

From investment to exit: The cycle of investment

- The steps towards an investment and the actors involved
- Due diligence items: accounting, legal, strategic, market...
- Main contractual documents: letter of intent, term sheet, shareholders agreement, warranties, covenants
- Monitoring: governance, reporting and associated tools
- Exits: scenarios