Follow the Money

A Walk through Zurich's Financial History

A guided walking tour

During the walking tour, participants will discover Zurich's fascinating history as a financial center and gain insights into how money, trade, and banking have shaped the city over the centuries. Exploring Zurich's Old Town, participants will learn about the city's early moneylenders, the connections between the silk industry and the rise of banking, and the people and places that contributed to Zurich's development into one of the world's leading financial centers.

After the tour, we will round off the evening with a Glühwein at the Christmas market Münsterhof.

Agenda:

- 19:00 Meeting point in front of the Visitor Information Office in the grand hall at Zurich main station
- 19:10 – 20:30 Walking tour through the city of Zurich
- 20:30 – 22:00 Glühwein at the Christmas Market Münsterhof (first drink offered by Young SECA)

Fees: Free of charge for Young SECA members
Further participants CHF 60

Language: English
